

HISTORICAL RESEARCH CENTER SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

About the Center: The Historical Research Center of the School of Arts and Sciences at the National University of Mongolia was established in September 2023. Our center aims to coordinate historical research within the university and align it with related scientific disciplines. We focus on developing interdisciplinary research, collaborating with domestic and international academic institutions, implementing academic projects and programs, and supporting historical research initiatives. Additionally, we strive to advance historical theory and methodology, integrating them into teaching and research practices, and organizing seminars and discussions.

Research Activities:

1. Implementation of domestic and international projects and programs.
2. Organizing field research.
3. Hosting academic conferences and meetings.
4. Conducting oral history research and establishing a comprehensive database.
5. Collaborating with foreign and domestic academic institutions.
6. Organizing research seminars and discussions.

Research Areas: The Historical Research Center aims to cover all periods of Mongolian history, with key research areas including:

- Early and medieval history of Mongolia
- Modern history of Mongolia
- Silk Road and Nomads
- Interactions between Eurasian nomads and settled civilizations
- State and social organization of Mongolians
- Economic history of Mongolia
